

2002 European Championship

October 4-11 Genoa, Italy

The Star European Championships were raced from Oct. 4 - 11 in Genoa, Italy. 65 boats made the trip to Italy from 22 nations, including some of the top Star sailors in the world.

Racing was hosted by the Italian Yacht Club in Genoa with racing conducted on the waters in front of the Lido di Albarno.

After five races, Fredrik Loof of Sweden and crew, Andres Ekstrom, won the European title by 6 points over triple Olympic medallist Mark Reynolds of America, who sailed with Austin Sperry. Finishing 3rd was the Danish boat of Niklas Holm and Martin Leifelt, winning a tiebreaker with the Germans Marc Pickel and
