

DISTRICT 14 CHAMPIONSHIP

April 25-27, 2003.

Naples welcomed 28 boats to take part in the 2003 District 14 Championship. Nicola Celon won it for the third consecutive time. Three days of sea, sun and light wind characterized this Neapolitan stage of the ultraclassic 2003. The first day had two races with light wind in which it was necessary to go to the laylines which seemed always to pay. The second day again brought light wind with the fourth race sailed in almost worthless wind with some crews outside the time limit. The fifth and sixth races with 10-15 knots wind and waves concluded the championship with the first five crews being: 1. Celon, 2. Bruni, 3. Veggetti, 4. Poggi, 5. Chieffi.

Bruni and Veggetti were tied in points and the tie was broken by Bruni placing best in the last race. Veggetti was in splendid shape and very swift although the wind was not his favorite but his boat "smoked". Chieffi was not in a position to win due to an ocs. However, there is a light in his eyes in hoping for an engagement in the Olympic games even if he demures and claims to be sailing just for pleasure (mah?!) On his bow, the Centurione of Luna Rossa (Massimo Galli) was able to compare the hard work of being a grinder on the America's Cup with the hard work of bow on the Star.
